ABOUT ME

I am a microinfluencer with a macro impact. I specialize in luxury lifestyle content. I live in Portland, OR and travel often, sharing a mix of my daily life and my life abroad. As someone who has worked hard for what I have, I want to inspire others to see they can have the life they once could only dream of. The content I share centers around luxury experiences (hotels, transportation, activities, shopping), fine dining (restaurants, chef's tasting menus, dining events), wine (living in the Willamette Valley has its perks), fashion (fashion weeks, runway shows, designer goods), and beauty (makeup, skincare, hair).
